Taming Canines Cookie Policy

Effective Date: 1 January 2026

Introduction

This Cookie Policy explains how Taming Canines ("we", "us", "our") uses cookies and similar technologies when you visit our website.

By continuing to use our website, you agree to the use of cookies in accordance with this policy. Where required by law, you will be given the opportunity to manage your cookie preferences.

What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files stored on your device when you visit a website.

Cookies help websites function effectively and provide information that can improve user experience, security and website performance.

Cookies do not typically identify an individual personally but may be linked to other information we hold about you.

How We Use Cookies

We use cookies to:

- Ensure the website functions correctly.
- Improve website performance.
- Understand how visitors use our website.
- Enhance user experience.
- Maintain website security.
- Remember user preferences.
- Measure the effectiveness of marketing activities.

Types of Cookies We Use

Strictly Necessary Cookies

These cookies are essential for the operation of the website and cannot normally be disabled.

They may be used to:

- Maintain website security.
- Manage user sessions.
- Process forms and bookings.

- Enable core website functionality.

Without these cookies, certain services may not function correctly.

Analytics Cookies

Analytics cookies help us understand how visitors interact with our website.

These cookies may collect information such as:

- Pages visited
- Time spent on pages
- Traffic sources
- General user behaviour

This information is used to improve website performance and user experience.

Analytics information is generally collected in an aggregated and anonymous format.

Functionality Cookies

These cookies allow the website to remember choices you make, such as:

- Language preferences
- Form information
- User settings

They help provide a more personalised experience.

Marketing and Advertising Cookies

Where used, these cookies help us:

- Measure advertising performance
- Understand visitor engagement
- Deliver relevant marketing content
- Track conversions from advertising campaigns

These cookies may be set by third-party providers.

Third-Party Cookies

Our website may use services provided by third parties, including but not limited to:

- Stripe

- Google Analytics
- Email marketing providers
- Social media platforms
- Video hosting services

These providers may place cookies on your device in accordance with their own privacy and cookie policies.

We recommend reviewing their policies for further information about how they process data.

Managing Cookies

Most web browsers allow you to:

- View stored cookies
- Delete cookies
- Block cookies
- Configure cookie preferences

Please note that disabling certain cookies may affect website functionality and your user experience.

Information on managing cookies can normally be found within your browser's help settings.

Changes to This Policy

Taming Canines reserves the right to update this Cookie Policy at any time.

Any updates will be published on this page and will take effect immediately unless otherwise stated.
